Part X, Line 2:

The Agency is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Agency in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Agency's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

accountant prepared the Form 990 and it was reviewed by the Treasurer of the Board during a meeting with the Chief Financial Officer.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The agency's conflict of interest policy covers members of the board of directors, officers and management employees of the agency at the beginning of association with the agency and on an annual basis thereafter, each person covered by the policy is required to complete a written conflict of interest disclosure statement. One of the provisions of the disclosure statement requires management employees to disclose conflicts to the Executive Director and Officers, and Board Members to disclose conflicts to the Chair of The Board of Directors or Vice Chair, if the Chair has a conflict after disclosure. All conflicts are then brought to the attention of the board affairs committee of the Board of Directors. The Board Affairs Committee determines whether an impermissible conflict exists and if it does, whether the transaction is contrary to the best interest of the agency and whether a transaction can be undertaken with parties with whom a conflicting interest exists under the policy, consummating such a transaction may result in disciplinary action and / or corrective action.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The compensation for the Executive Director is determined and approved by the Executive Committee, along with an evaluation of performance for the past year and goals for the upcoming year. Minutes for all meetings are maintained.
